GSD United States (US) Employee Benefits & Workplace Guide

1. GSD United States (US) Employee Benefits Overview

This document defines the official employee benefits, leave policies, health coverage, and workplace guidelines for full-time United States (US) employees of GSD (Global Software Delivery).

Eligibility: All regular full-time US employees working 30+ hours per week are eligible for benefits starting on the first day of employment (no waiting period).

2. Paternal & Parental Leave Policy (United States)

Paternal & Parental Leave Entitlement: GSD provides twelve (12) weeks (60 business days) of 100% fully paid Parental Leave to all eligible US employees - regardless of gender, including fathers (paternal leave), mothers, adoptive parents, and foster parents.

Eligibility Requirement: Employees must have completed at least six (6) months of continuous employment with GSD to qualify for full paid parental leave.

Flexible Scheduling: Paid paternal/parental leave may be taken continuously or broken into two blocks within the first twelve (12) months following the birth, adoption, or foster placement of a child.

Ramp-Back Program: Returning US parents may work a reduced 80% schedule (32 hours/week) at 100% pay for their first four (4) weeks back on active duty.

3. Vacation, Paid Time Off (PTO), and Sick Leave (United States)

Annual Vacation / PTO: US employees receive twenty (20) business days (4 weeks) of Paid Time Off (PTO) per calendar year for their first 3 years of tenure, increasing to twenty-five (25) business days starting in year 4.

Rollover Cap: Up to five (5) unused PTO days may be carried over into the next calendar year.

Sick & Mental Health Days: US employees receive seven (7) paid sick/mental health days per year, separate from vacation PTO.

Year-End Recharge: GSD grants a company-wide paid slow-down between December 26 and December 31 for non-critical project teams.

4. Health, Dental, Vision, and Retirement Benefits (United States)

Medical Insurance: GSD offers two national BlueCross BlueShield (BCBS) medical plans. GSD pays 90% of employee premiums and 75% of dependent premiums:

1) GSD Platinum PPO Plan: $250 annual deductible, $20 primary care copay, $35 specialist copay.

2) GSD High-Deductible Health Plan (HDHP) with HSA: $1,600 individual deductible; GSD contributes $1,500/year ($3,000 for families) directly into the employee's Health Savings Account (HSA).

Dental & Vision: 100% employer-paid Delta Dental PPO (includes $2,500 orthodontia lifetime maximum) and VSP Vision coverage ($250 annual frame allowance).

401(k) Retirement Plan: GSD matches 100% of employee contributions up to 5% of base salary with immediate 100% vesting.

Wellness & Home Office Stipend: $1,200/year Lifestyle & Wellness stipend plus a one-time $1,000 Home Office Ergonomic Setup allowance.

5. US Workplace Policies & Company Video Library

Hybrid & Remote Work Policy: GSD operates a Remote-First model in the US with optional co-working hubs in Austin, New York, and San Francisco. Core collaboration hours with Argentina teams are 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM US Eastern Time.
